Observed voice

Concise · Direct · Action-led

Do

• Keep the short, declarative sentence rhythm found in the quoted copy.

• Address the reader with “you” and “your”, as the source does.

• Lead with concrete action verbs already present in the site copy.

Don’t

• Don’t expand a compact source line into a lengthy explanation.

• Don’t replace direct address with impersonal third-person language.

• Don’t introduce claims or promises absent from the source pages.
